

Dear guests,

Here you will find a description how to get to Pareti, Casa del Sole:

When you arrive in Portoferraio, the “biggest town on the island” you must follow the sign “tutte le direzioni” and a little bit further you will find signs for the direction to Porto Azzurro and Capoliveri. You follow these signs and after about 14 km drive you will find a traffic light and there is a sign for Capoliveri. Here you turn right for Capoliveri. You can already see the little town of Capoliveri on top of the hill which you will reach after about 2 km drive and you just follow the street. When you get to the town after about 100 meters there is a kind of corner to the left (you can't go in any other direction). This road leads you in a half circle around the town. You follow this road until you can only turn left or halfright. You follow the street turning halfright. However, there are already signs leading you to Pareti (also Morcone, Innamorata and Madonna delle Grazie). After just a few meters you get to a point where the main road goes around a left corner and a few meters after you get to a roundabout (on your right you can see the unicipal building) where practically you have to go straight on. Here you will also find on your right hand side the municipal building. You go straight on and here you are already on the road that takes you to Pareti. You just follow the road for about 3 km until you get to a point where the road divides. The upper road takes you to Innamorata and the bottom road takes you to Pareti. After only about 30 meters on the right hand side you find our sign Casa del Sole.

We wish you a pleasant trip.
